

How to Get to ISEG

Arriving by Plane:

Lisbon is just a few hours away from North America (about 6 to 8 hours) and 2 to 3 hours from most European cities. Lisbon's international airport (Aeroporto da Portela) is only 7 km away from the city centre. A complete public transport network is available in the main towns.

In Lisboa there are three kinds of public transport: buses and trams (Carris) and Underground (Metro). The bus fares is 1,80€ and the Metro fare is 1,40€. A simple and cheap way of getting from the airport to the city center is by bus, take the AeroBus number 1 > City center at the Airport, service begins at 07am and ends at 11pm., and the ticket price is 3,15€. Get off at Av. Fontes Pereira de Melo bus stop. From there you take the number 727 bus to go to ISEG and get off at Av. D. Carlos I bus stop.

Alternatively, since the Lisbon Airport is very close to the City Centre, you can reach ISEG by taxi (ask about the fare beforehand and for a receipt at destination), they are available 24-hours a day, the journey time to the city centre lasts 20-30 minutes and costs around 16€, ask to come to Rua do Quelhas nº 6, near the Parliament (Assembleia da República).

Taxis are mostly painted cream with a roof-light to identify them. However, some taxis keep the old colours, green and black. In towns, taxis use taximeters, but outside urban boundaries, the service is charged by the kilometer, and includes the price for the driver's return to his starting point. From 10 p.m. to 6 p.m., the fare increases 20%. It is usual to give a tip of 10% on top of the price registered. Luggage is charged according to a fixed rate. All taxis have an updated chart in two languages.

Arriving by Train:

If you arrive by train, you will reach the elegant Victorian-style Santa Apolónia railway station.

To get to ISEG, you should take the 728 bus and get off at Santos. Then you have two alternatives: either to walk up Av. D.Carlos I (5 minutes) or to take the number 706 or 727 bus and get off at the end of Av. D.Carlos I.
